SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

New Suits Filed.—Two new suits were filed in the district court yesterday. The plaintiff in both is the Globe Hardware company and the defendants are respectively the Live Oak Copper Mining & Smelting company and the Globe-Arizona Telephone company. The former is for debt and the latter an attachment.

Teachers Examined.—Five teachers took the examination in County Superintendent W. O. Kellner's office Monday and Tuesday. They were R. M. Killian, Globe, for life certificate; John W. Murphy, Globe; Miss Annie C. Mercer, Globe; T. T. Chavez, Globe, and S. H. Monger, Wilcox. The papers were sent away yesterday and the result of the territorial superintendent's examination of them is expected here the end of the week.

Supervisors Adjourn.—The board of supervisors of this county after being in session two days and a half, adjourned, or rather took a recess at noon yesterday. Only routine work was transacted by the board.

School Attendance Good.—The average attendance at the public schools during the month of November was 86 per cent. The total enrollment for the month was 791, exclusive of the high school, as against 738, the average attendance during the first month of the term, which shows a strong increase. Twenty-three scholars are enrolled in the high school, six boys and seventeen girls.

A Handsome Store.—William Mill Williams has almost completed the improvements he has been making at his store in North Globe. A handsome galvanized iron sign bearing his name, now adorns the top of the building. The store is being painted, inside and out, and when the work is completed the store will be a credit to the city.

Butler Wins Cane.—W. H. Butler, chairman of the board of supervisors, won the cane raffled off yesterday by Tom Donaldson, the raffie taking place at Keegan's. The cane is a unique one, being made entirely of elk antlers and is the work of James McGuire, who is serving a term in the prison at Yuma. Mr. Butler values the cane very highly and although he received several good offers for it, refused to dispose of the prize.

New Management Southern Grill.—Yesterday William Welch, who for some time past has been operating the Acme cafe, purchased the interest of Charles E. Cunningham in the Southern Grill, Trust building. Mr. Welch is one of the best restaurant men in the territory.

pany has completed its contract with the Gila Valley road and is moving its entire outfit to Nevada to work on a similar contract.

HENRY BUCKNER GETS TEN YEARS

Attempted Slayer of D. James Gets Maximum Penalty for Assault.

Henry S. Buckner, who Monday pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon, was yesterday afternoon sentenced by Judge Nave to serve ten years in the territorial prison. Before sentence was pronounced Attorney Flannigan made an eloquent plea to the court for mercy, stating that his client shot James while mentally unbalanced through excessive use of liquor. Judge Nave said that it was unusual for him to make comments in passing sentence, but the eloquence of the attorney's plea moved him to remark that a vast number of crimes are committed because of the excessive use of liquor and that no matter how great a license is imposed on the traffic, the amount obtained from this source would never equal the expenditures caused by it in the course of justice.

The trial of Wesley Burgess for the murder of Juan Cabrera on Lower Pinto Creek was begun at the morning session, a jury having been secured before adjournment Monday afternoon. A number of witnesses, principally Mexicans, were introduced by the prosecution and rapid progress was made. The territory rested before the noon recess was taken and by the time for adjournment in the afternoon the defense had most of its evidence in. Burgess was placed on the stand in his own defense by Judge McCollum and he told his story of the tragedy to the jury. He stated that the trouble arose over a game of "pangini" in his barber shop and that the Mexican left the place saying that he would "put out his (Burgess's) lights" before the next day if Burgess did not beat him to it. When he saw the Mexican coming toward his tent house, he saw him reaching as though for a gun. He took down his shotgun and fired at the Mexican. He said he did not know whether or not the Mexican was armed.

After Burgess was cross examined by District Attorney Henry, the defense introduced other witnesses to show the bad character of the deceased and also to show that he usually carried a gun. The case will go to the jury some time this morning.

After the disposition of the Burgess case, the trials of Joe Cline and Jesus Garcia will be taken up.

ITALIAN MASONIC LODGE ORGANIZED BY THE LOCAL COLONY

Globe Lodge No. 135, Human Rite Masons, was organized in Globe Sunday evening at Miners' Union hall with 104 of the local Italian colony as members. The lodge was instituted by Dr. G. Gerino of Thurber, Texas, with the following officers: D. Zucca, grand master; C. Dell'Ar, first assistant; B. Brocca, second assistant; D. Rabagliati, orator; P. Rolando, secretary; G. Bracco, treasurer, and C. Giacomo, master of ceremonies.

Monday evening a banquet was given by the lodge in honor of Dr. Gerino for his excellent work in instituting the lodge. It was held at Maurel hall and was attended by about 150 members of the Italian colony. After a splendid spread which was served by Messrs C. Dell'Ar and C. Bruno, a delightful evening was spent in music and dancing, and it was a late hour when the gathering dispersed.

When Paul Jones was asked to strike his colors, his reply was: "I haven't commenced fighting yet." When you talk to a genuine article of a Globe man about the financial condition of the only Globe on the globe, he will tell you that "we have got the proper timber all over this portion of the southwest to open mines, build cities, railroads, turnpikes and canals. He will also tell you that the true Anglo-Saxon race don't know what defeat is." There have been depressions over each country since the beginning of time, and as the value of commodities rise and fall, so will depressions come and go, and the man or set of men who could regulate the desires, ambitions and requirements of all the people to exactly suit all the people at any and all times, would be greater in wisdom than all the sages of the past or present age. We know that we people in Globe have got the best town, the best people, the best climate and the best mines in the country. "It's up to us to do the balance. We wish to state that we are in the real estate business and are open to trades, buys and sales. Buying or selling, give the
